Society of Pennsylvania Women in New York

The Society of Pennsylvania Women in New York was organized by a Committee of The Pennsylvania Society, of which the Director was Chairman. The organization was completed September 25, 1913, and the Society was inaugurated by a meeting of its Council following a dinner given to the Council of The Pennsylvania Society and the Council of the Society of Pennsylvania Women in New York by Mr. George C. Boldt at the Waldorf-Astoria on November 6, 1913.

The purpose of the Society is to promote patriotic interest in Pennsylvania by cultivating social intercourse among its members and by collecting historical material relating to the State. Its development will proceed, therefore, on these two broad general lines.

In a sense an outgrowth of The Pennsylvania Society, the Society of Pennsylvania Women in New York is a wholly independent organization, organized with the friendliest feelings towards the older organization, and in large part from the women of its membership.

Membership in this Society is open to women born in the State of Pennsylvania; to women who have been residents of that State for a continuous period of seven years; to women whose husbands were born in Pennsylvania or who may have resided therein seven consecutive years; and to the descendants of all women eligible to membership.

Three annual Dinners have been held by the Society; the first on December 13, 1913; the second on December 12, 1914; the third on December 11, 1915. On the latter occasion the interest of the Dinner was heightened by an address by Mrs. Blankenburg, and the singing of some songs, charmingly rendered by Mrs. Sarah McDonald Sheridan. At the conclusion the members and their guests adjourned to the boxes of the grand Ballroom, for the addresses of The Pennsylvania Society.

Several ladies have been most kind in extending hospitalities to the Society. Two Teas have been given by Mrs. Henry W. Shoemaker, one by Mrs. William Andrews Clark, and one by Mrs. F. H. Eaton. In addition a Tea with dancing was given the Society by The Pennsylvania Society in connection with its annual meeting of 1914. The Society gave an entertainment and dance at the Waldorf-Astoria on April 14.

The Society subscribed $200.00 to the Belgian Relief Fund in 1914.

The membership, December 31, 1915, numbered 234.

A cordial invitation to join the Society is extended to Pennsylvania women everywhere. The annual dues are $5.00, and there is no entrance fee. Application for membership may be made at any time. Cards for that purpose may be had by addressing the Secretary, Mrs. William Harrison Brown, 249 West 13th Street, New York.
